AN ESCAPE, ENTIRELY YOUR OWN.

WELCOME TO THE LODGE

Hidden within its own secluded cove on the Rhins of Galloway.

Knockinaam is not simply a hotel - it is a lodge to gather in. A place where the pace softens, the doors are open, and time begins to feel unhurried.

From the moment you arrive, the lodge becomes your own, a private and beautifully secluded coastal retreat.

Ten bedrooms within the main lodge, with the option to include two additional self-catering lodges

For the duration of your stay, the lodge is entirely yours.

You are free to settle in, host, and enjoy it as you wish, with everything taken care of seamlessly behind the scenes.

Whether it's a special celebration, a gathering of friends, or time away with family, each stay is shaped around you.

There is no fixed structure, no sense of formality, just the freedom to enjoy the lodge at your own pace.

TIME AT THE LODGE

Days unfold naturally.

Morning walks along the coastline.

DINING

Food sits at the heart of the experience.

Our 3 AA Rosette kitchen creates a seasonal seven-course tasting menu each evening, alongside more relaxed dining throughout the day.

Everything is thoughtfully prepared and seamlessly served, allowing you to simply enjoy time at the table together.

As evening arrives, everyone comes together.

Effortless, relaxed, and beautifully considered.

THE LODGE

Ten individually styled bedrooms within the main lodge, two additional self-catering lodges can be included, and a collection of elegant yet comfortable spaces to gather or retreat. From fireside evenings to sea-view mornings, the lodge adapts to the rhythm of your stay.

MADE FOR YOUR STAY

Some stays arrive with a reason...

a birthday, an anniversary, or something worth gathering for. Others are simply about time away together.

Whatever brings you here, we'll take care of the details, from thoughtful touches at the lodge to shaping experiences throughout your stay, so everything feels effortless from the moment you arrive.

Perhaps that's a private whisky tasting, time spent at Kitchen Coos & Ewes, or stargazing beneath Galloway's dark skies.

For those looking to explore further, experiences such as clay pigeon shooting, golf, or guided coastal tours can be arranged.

At the lodge, evenings can be brought to life with live musicians, or time spent outdoors by the sea.

For something truly memorable, private helicopter flights can be arranged along the coastline, landing on our very own front lawn.

Time at the lodge.

Good food.

Nowhere else you need to be.

A lodge by the sea, yours for a while
